In the reference 1st read above Smt. M.Jyothi, formerly Junior Assistant of Commissioner of Police Office, Vijayawada, has made a representation to the Government, requesting to revoke her resignation to the post of Junior Assistant and permit her to join duty afresh in one of the existing vacancy in Commissioner of Police Office, Vijayawada.

2. In the reference 2nd read above, the Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad, has informed that the Commissioner of Police, Vijayawada, has informed that the individual was appointed as Junior Assistant on 25-7-1996 on allotment by the District Collector against ST vacancy and that she served the Department till 29-6-2006, and she was sincere and hard working. He has also stated that she has applied for leave from 18.4.2006 and extended the same in spells and that though she is entitled for 5 years EOL as per Rule 5 of Andhra Pradesh Leave Rules. The EOL due to prevailing administrative problems at that time and shortage of manpower her extension of leave was not considered and she was recalled for duty, in Memo. dated 21.6.2006, but she has tendered resignation to the post which was accepted in 14.7.2006 and the copy of which was sent to her by post but they were received back un-served, and stated that though her resignation was accepted she has not applied for any terminal benefits so far and now requested to revoke her resignation. He has finally stated that they have no objection for her reinstatement into service afresh in the existing ST vacancy as there are no adverse remarks against her while she was in service. The Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad, has also reported that as per Rule 30 (a) (ii) of A.P. State and Subordinate Rules, 1996, a member of service may resign his appointment and the acceptance of the resignation by the appointing authority shall take effect from the date of communication of such acceptance if she is on leave or from the date of expiry of leave, and that no withdrawal of resignation shall be permitted except with the sanction of the Government, if the withdrawal is made after the resignation takes effect. Further, as per (c) of the same rule, a member of service shall if he /she resigns his / her appointment forfeit all the service rendered by him / her under the Government and as per Sub-Rule (d) the re-appointment of a resigned person shall be treated as a first appointment.

3. The Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad, has further reported that Smt. M. Jyothi, Junior Assistant submitted a representation dated 29.6.2006 tendering her resignation to the post of Junior Assistant, and the Commissioner of Police, Vijayawada, has accepted the same vide his proceedings dated 14.7.2006. As per the letter of the Commissioner of Police, Vijayawada, the acceptance of the resignation was sent to the individual by post but it was returned un-served. The Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad, has, therefore, requested the Government to take a decision on the representation of Smt. M.Jyothi, Junior Assistant, requesting to revoke her resignation to the post of Junior Assistant.

4. After careful examination, Government hereby revoke the resignation of Smt. M.Jyothi, formerly Junior Assistant in the O/o Commr. of Police, Vijayawada who resigned from service on 12.7.2006, and hereby re-appoint her as Junior Assistant with immediate effect subject to the provisions laid down in Sub-Rule © & (d) of Rule-30 of Andhra Pradesh State and Subordinate Service Rules, 1996.

5. The Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad, shall take necessary action accordingly and intimate the same to the individual under proper acknowledgement.
